

Cassellton.

The Questionnaires covering the new draft rules were received during the past week by a number of Griggs county boys subject to draft. In case of any doubt as to the interpretation of any question you may seek the advice of an informant who will give free counsel on matters pertaining to the draft. We also wish to call attention to the fact that fail-