

of his country.

County Agent Jackson has sent out letters to all threshing machine owners informing them that the government requires them to make a report of all the grain threshed, either for themselves or for hire, to the county agent, and requesting them to notify him at once if they desire the necessary book and blanks that will be furnished to keep the records.

The Times editor has finally brok.