

to quit farming.

Rev. L. M. Halling and daughter, Miss Lydia, went to Fargo Saturday where the latter underwent an operation for appendicitis at St. Luke's hospital. The operation, which was performed Tuesday morning, was successful, and the patient expects soon to return home.