

McHenry Tribune: One of the biggest land deals in this vicinity made for some time was closed the other day when H. S. Halvorson became owner of the old George Backen farm, comprised of 1100 acres of farming land, located near Juanita lake. The purchase included horses, cattle, machinery and everything that was on the farm. Consideration was $50,000.

A report has gained circulation