

Hannaford Enterprise: A rather small number turned out for the entertainment at the hall last night to enjoy what proved to be one of the best, if not the best, entertainment ever given here, and far better than any entertainment ever before offered by the Federated Community Association. Mr. Eastman convinced his audience that he is a lecturer of fine ability. He has lofty ideas that should be heard by all and his oratorical ability is of the highest. Mentioning politics, Mr. Eastman said he is a party orphan, the Bull Moose party to which he belonged having died some years ago since when he had shifted for himself without party affiliations. In religious views he said he is a Presbyterian, but not in good standing with the church and therefore free to shift for himself there also. In his lecture he pointed out forcibly that unless men learn to live to serve instead of live to grab, our civilization has come to an end. The Rudolph Musical company proved themselves entertainers of the highest rank, giving a program where mirth and art blended. NOTE: This group of entertainers will appear in Binford Saturday afternoon and evening and Sunday afternoon, Feb. 28 and 29.
