

the Army of Occupation in Germany.

Clarence Hanson arrived here last Friday, from Minneapolis, where he is employed in a garage. He was forced to quit work for awhile on account of having contracted blood poison in his right hand.

Stephen Dennis and family, 100