

heart.

All went well for about a week. At this time Hierdal discovered that his steers were missing. After a search of two days he located them in Gronvold's pasture—nine of them for one of them had been butchered. The cat was out of the bag. The local marshal, M. S. Mallough, was notified, who arrested young Hanson as he came in from the lake Sunday evening. The deputy sheriff of Griggs county, where the cattle were stolen, took the young man to Cooperstown Monday where he is being held until the court determines his fate.

It is reported that Elmer Hanson's parents were not home at the time the cattle were stolen and that several other boys are implicated in the deal.