

During the thunder storm visited upon us Tuesday morning, lightning struck the Geo. D. Bowe house, occupied by the H. B. Hanson family, and did considerable damage inside. It struck the chimney, scattering soot all over the rooms, shook dishes off the table, and shattered the telephone. No one was hurt however, and luckily no fire resulted.