

them.

H. B. Hanson has moved his threshing machinery shed from the light plant property to the rear of the garage, and will use it for storage purposes and also intends to install his welding outfit therein.