

reader of The Times.

H. B. Hanson returned yesterday from Camp Custer, Michigan, where he was called on account of the illness of his brother, Albin. He visited the Dodge car factory in Detroit, and in company with another gentleman, drove two new cars to Binford.

Eunice Johnson arrived here last