Morris Hanson, of Lawton, this state, a brother of Henry Hanson, arrived here last week to attend the funeral of his cousin, Melvin Hanson. Mr. Hanson was with the First division of the A. E. F. in France and saw several months of hard fighting. He was in the drive when the American troops took the town of Cantigny and later in the drive at Soissons, when he was hit in the breast with a piece of high explosive, which sent him to the hospital, where he remained until after the armistice was signed.
