

Mrs. A. M. Hanson, whose condition was so precarious last week, that she was not expected to live but a short time, has rallied, and since that time has been able to take nourishment and is feeling much better. She is making a brave battle for life and her many friends are hoping against hope that she may be spared for a long life.

---