

The eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arndt Helland met with a painful accident last Friday while working in the hay field. He was operating a bull rake when the teeth caught the ground, overturned the rake, and he was thrown off. A part of the rake landed on the boy's leg causing a compound fracture between the knee and ankle. He was brought to town and given medical attention at once and is improving nicely.