

Henry Herigstad was sent by the Griggs County Local Board to Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill., on Monday, to fill the call for 12 men, eleven of whom left Friday. The Board was one man short, due to one Paul Nygren, a Swedish declarant, who files affidavits withdrawing his declaration of intentions. Through his action in filing such affidavits, Nygren is forever barred from becoming a citizen of the United States, and it is understood that the government will return him to his native land, Sweden, which, in the estimation of the ordinary red-blooded person of whatever nationality, seems letting one of his calibre off very easily.—Sentinel-Courier.
