

home fund.

J. J. Herlick has been laid up with an attack of the grippe this week, but is improving. It has been inferred that Jack contracted his illness while returning home from a grand-nulla party, and in a jubilant spirit because the cards came his way, he inhaled too many great gobs of cold air while gloating over his evening's string of successive victories.

Harold Davidson stationed at