

STORM PREVENTS RURAL ELECTION

Several Polling Places in State Were Closed—No Vote in Willow and Kingsley Townships.

A marked decrease in the rural vote is the result of the terrific blizzard that raged throughout the state Tuesday. Returns from the elections will be very slow. It is not expected that anything definite as to the results will be available till late in the week.

In the townships of Willow and Kingsley, no elections were held.
