

etc.

Pvt. Severin Knutson arrived here yesterday from Camp Dodge, where he was mustered out of the service. Severin was gassed three days after he entered the Argonne forest battle and was blind for the three weeks. He and Olaf Knapp were bunkies "over there" and were together continuously. Severin was in many close calls and little dreamed that he would ever see Binford again.