

Anton Larson and family and Chris Larson departed Tuesday for Luck, Wisconsin, where they will make their future homes. Enroute they will stop off at Tower City for a brief visit with friends. These estimable people have many friends who regret their removal from Binford, but their good wishes go with them in their new home.