

members are urged to be present.

Sanborn Enterprise: Mrs. Belle Reid Lewis of Binford, who was called here on account of the death of her brother's child last week, left for her home Friday morning. As children both Belle and Bessie Reid attended the Sanborn school, their parents having been residents of our town in the eighties.

We thought we had gotten to the