

tion was $50,000.

A report has gained circulation here during the week that Gordon Lindgren of Cooperstown, who was reported killed in action in France, is still alive. The report is to the effect that he was taken prisoner by the Germans, and escaped into Switzerland. We understand that his relatives have received no official confirmation of the report, but all are hoping that it is more than mere rumor.

... of the members of the