

Sentinel-Courier: Jack Lindgren returned home Thursday from Stampede, N. D., where he had gone to take a position with the Great Western Grain Co. Jack could not find living quarters at Stampede, and will go to Hannaford where he has been engaged to manage the N. J. Olsen elevator. Mrs. Lindgren and the baby will go to Hannaford as soon as a house can be secured.