

Miss Marie Loberg, who has been employed as bookkeeper at the First National bank during the past year, resigned her position here, and Monday departed for her home at Delamere, where she has accepted a similar position.