

The Shadow social held Saturday evening in the Miller school, north of town, was a success in every way. Everyone there had a good time and $43.00 was realized from the sale of shadows.