

B. C. Week was down from Mose last Saturday. Mr. Week informed The Times that a number of citizens of that community had formed an organization and purchased the old hardware store building. It is the intention of the organization to made some necessary improvements to fit the building for a community hall.