

The new Mose hall will have its first entertainment next Monday evening. A basket party and dance will be given and the community is invited.