

also having good sales.

Private Melvin Myer received his honorable discharge from the army, at Camp Dodge, and returned to Binford Saturday. Mr. Myer was stationed at Camp Fremont, California, since he entered the service and had been moved to a seaport to be sent to France. When the transport had been out at sea five days, the armistice was signed and the boys were returned to the states.

A genuine old fashioned kind of a