

Mr and Mrs. John Dox entertained a large number of friends at their farm home, Sunday, at a prettily appointed dinner in honor of the marriage of their youngest daughter, Miss Ella Dox to Mr. Carl Kruschwitz. Plates were laid for over fifty guests, the tables being nicely arranged for the occasion and loaded with all good things to eat. The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful gifts of china, cut glass silver and linens. Photographer Newgard was present and took some good pictures of the party
