

John Norman, who has been an efficient clerk at the Buchheit-Bakken store for several years, departed on Saturday last, with his family, for Valley City, where he will conduct a grocery store of his own. This estimable family will be greatly missed in Binford where they have made many friends, but our best wishes for their success and happiness go with them to their new home.