

The teachers and pupils of the Binford school take this means of extending thanks to Andrew Norstrum for donating the material and framing their Junior Red Cross certificate which now adorns one wall of the building.