

The North Dakota Bankers association has offered a reward of $500 to be paid "for the capture dead or alive of any bank burglar known to have burglarized with explosives, flame cutting or electricity, or attempted the same, on the safe or vault of a member of the North Dakota Bankers association, with an additional reward of $100 for every additional man connected with the same burglary or attempt."
