

Hunting Season Opens Sept. 16th.

Altho the peace treaty has been signed in Europe, the guns will soon be banging merrily away in North Dakota with the opening of the hunting season, Tuesday, Sept. 16, less than a month away.

Already many are spending their rainy days in the attic surreptitiously polishing up the old 12-guage and elevating the barrel and fearfully glancing thru in search of a possible spot of rust. One lucky local man, who, for obvious reasons did not care
