

to divulge his name for publication, gave the assurance that the prairie chickens have a super-excellent flavor this year. "We ran over two of them with the car," he said, by way of explanation, "and rather than see them wasted I ate them."

The complete text of the game laws for North Dakota during the 1919-1920 season has been printed and is being distributed. It is faced with the following statement:

"The North Dakota Game and Fish Board seeks the co-operation of every sportsman in the state in the protection and preservation of game and in the strict enforcement of these laws.

It requests all to remember that—

"All forms of spring shooting are prohibited.

"That deer are protected till 1921.

Do not forget there are penalties of both fine and imprisonment for—

"Hunting without a license.

"Killing game before the season opens or after it closes.

"Killing more than the bag limit.

"Permitting dogs to run at large from April 1 to November 1.

"Being afield with gun and dogs between July 1 and Sept. 15.

"Having game illegally in possession.

"Remember the bag limit for

"Ducks and geese, 15 per day.

"Grouse and chickens, 5 per day.

"Do not forget that rewards of $10 to $25 are paid for information that will lead to the conviction of any person violating the game and fish or the trapping laws.

"Everyone knowing of a violation of the law is requested to report the facts to a member of the board, or to the warden.

"Send the information to the chief game warden of your district. He will treat the matter confidentially if requested to.

"Don't forget that licenses are required for hunting, trapping, practising taxidermy and training dogs professionally."
