

road to recovery at this writing.

Emil Olson, assistant cashier at the First National bank, went to Valley City yesterday, where he will have an X-ray examination made of his head in an attempt to locate the seat of trouble that has been giving him so much earache the past year.