

exists a most capital business.

O. W. Olson returned Monday from Fargo where he had been in attendance at the tractor school held under the direction of the International Harvester Co. The International is doing a fine work in having these schools in the various cities of the state during the winter, and much good is derived from them by the farm boys as well as others.

Director Harold Olson of Coopers

ty
so
g
st
b
c
o
f
n
e
i