

Siger Olson wrote his parents under date of July 28 that he is in England, but expects soon to go on to France. He writes that they had a pleasant voyage across the ocean and that he was sea sick only a couple of days.