

late hour.

P. A. Overby returned Saturday from Fargo, where he had taken his wife for an operation for appendicitis. When Mrs. Overby was examined it was found that she had Yellow Jaundice, so the operation was postponed until her condition improves.