

The N. D. State Band will go to Binford, Thursday evening, May 16, to give a concert similar to the one given here this spring. The first part of the program will be by the band and the last half by the orchestra. The program given this spring was declared the best ever and this promises to be, if anything, a little better.