

O. S. Houge was down from Pekin last Friday. Ole has quit the contracting business and is devoting his whole time to shop work. He has one of the best equipped shops in the northwest, far above the average found in the smaller towns. While here he enrolled his name on The Times list, presumably to keep posted on the base ball dope.