The Sons of Norway picnic at Red nor, of Grand Forks, who, for two Willow lake last Sunday was a suc- hours, told in a forceful and intercess in every respect. The weather esting way, which made the blood of and long before the program began our boys in France and what they o it was evident that another crowd would ultimately do to that lying. like the Soldiers picnic last year licentious, arrogant, haby-killing. would be on hand. A combined woman-despoiling, Kaiser of the unband from Pekin, Willow and Bin- civilized Huns. He left a personal ford played several numbers before message for any pro-Germans who band opened the afternoon program, O'Connor furnished proof for his States Attorney Tufte held the at-this community. The indoor basetention of his hearers in a review of ball game between Binford and Pethe events since the picnic held in kin resulted in a victory for Binford. honor of the Griggs county draft "Some day" is the concensus of opmen at the lake last year. Mr. Tuf- inion.

r

P

was ideal for an outdoor gathering Americans course more rapidly, of the noon hour. At one-thirty the might be in the community. Mr. followed by vocal numbers by the statements. His was one of the best Binford and Cooperstown choruses, addresses on the war ever heard in te then introduced J. F. T. O'Con- Subscribe for the Times.