

Hannaford Enterprise: C. E. Peterson, editor of the Binford Times, has purchased a two-story concrete building in Binford and is this week moving into his new place of business. He also contemplates installing a typesetting machine and a modern press, and will then have one of the most modern newspaper plants in the state. Here's wishing Editor Peterson all kinds of prosperity in his new location, and may he soon be publishing legals again.
