

Mrs. C. E. Peterson received a message last evening, from Plentywood, Montana, stating that her sister was seriously ill with pneumonia and advising her to come at once. She autoed to Lakota to take the Great Northern and reached Plentywood today.