

for you.

Sentinel-Courier: Geo. A. Pratt is advertising an auction sale of some of his pure-bred horses and cattle. The sale will take place on the Pratt farm, in Tyrol township, five miles north of Cooperstown, on Saturday, August 24, at 7:30 p. m. It will be held in the evening so that farmers will have a better opportunity to attend. Mr. Pratt recently returned from Rochester, Minn., where he was informed by physicians at the Mayo hospital that he was a victim of cancer of the stomach and diaphragm, which had reached such an advanced stage that recovery is impossible. Mr. Pratt desires us to state that it is for this reason he is having the sale and adjusting other business affairs. The cattle and horses he is offering are all pure-breds and he hopes that anyone interested will bear the date of sale in mind and take full advantage of the opportunity it offers.
