

Peculiar Whirlwind Stunt.

Pekin Budget: O. S. Quam had a very peculiar accident Sunday afternoon while he and his family were out driving leisurely along the road east of Geo. Enstad of Bergen township. The day was nice and calm and no disturbance was in sight, when all at once and quick as a flash a whirlwind sneaked up behind the unsuspecting travelers, and without any warning lifted the cover from the automobile, tearing the cloth from it like it had been so much paper. No further damage was done, and the party proceeded on the journey to Binford, minus the cloth from their car top.
