

The launch for Red Willow lake arrived here on yesterday's freight and is being unloaded today. The boat is a large and roomy one, well equipped with an excellent motor, top and sun curtains. There is room for 25 to 30 passengers, and no doubt will be filled to capacity during the balance of the lake season.