

The basket social held in the Retzlaff school house, south of town, last Friday evening, was a financial success even though the attendance was not so very large. With Mr. Jones as auctioneer, the bidding was brisk and the baskets sold like hot cakes, and netted $52.50. Carl Grove and Mrs. C. E. Peterson furnished the music for the occasion.