

Mrs. D. F. Rice was taken suddenly ill Sunday afternoon while out in the yard, and was carried in to Grigsby's and the doctor called, who pronounced the case ulcer of the stomach. She had improved sufficiently by Tuesday to be moved to her home, where she is now on the road to recovery.