

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ringlee and children returned Tuesday evening from Fargo, where they consulted doctors concerning their son, Charles, who burned his hand severely some time ago. The doctor assured them that the baby's hand would heal properly in time and that no ill effects would result.