

Brimer.

Little Charles Ringlee's condition is improving to such a favorable degree that he will be permitted to return home in about a week. The little fellow had a rather severe time of it in Fargo, but all are pleased that the operation was successful and that he will be relieved from further suffering.

Miss Harriet Strehlow formerly a