

Rebekah Assembly at Rogers

The Rebekah Lodge of District No. 4 met in annual session at Rogers on October 7th, 1920.

The meeting opened at 9:30 p. m., District President Sister Lavery of Valley City, presiding. The towns represented were Valley City, Carington, Melville, Enderlin, Binford and Rogers.

After the reading of the minutes, Honors of the Degree were given Assembly President Maude Stanley. The district president appointed the following committees:

Committee on Press.

Committee on Good of the Order.

Committee on Legislation.

The initiation work was put on by the degree staffs of Valley City and Binford, three candidates being initiated.

The assembly president gave an interesting talk which was a great benefit to all.

A recess was called when those present were invited to partake of a splendid banquet. The tables, as well as the dining room were beautifully decorated in pink roses.

Officers for the coming year are President, Eleanor Truscott, Binford; vice President, Mrs. Burgess, Valley City; Secretary, Trudie Olby, Valley City; treasurer, Helen Peterson, Rogers.

District President Eleanor Truscott appointed the following officers to fill the chairs:

Warden, Mabel Miller, Melville.

Conductor, Nellie Trullinger, Carington.

Chaplain, Mrs. H. E. Picket, Rogers.

Inside Guardian, Bertha Cole, Enderlin.

Outside Guardian, Arthur Hegland Binford.

Rogers was given a vote of thanks for their hospitality. Those present enjoyed a very pleasant and profitable time.

The Valley City lodge extended an invitation to District Lodge No 4 to hold their next meeting at Valley City, the latter part of October 1921. The invitation was accepted. The invitation was accepted --Contributed.