

ing.

Pvt. Torger Rogne returned to Binford last Saturday, from Camp Dodge, where he received his honorable discharge from the army. Torger enlisted in Co. G, of Valley City, in the old first North Dakota, which was later made a part of the 164th, recently returned from overseas service. He was in France 15 months, and although his duties as a cook relieved him of actual warfare, he witnessed many sights incidental thereto, and has many interesting stories to relate.

John S. ...